

CVC Newsletter January 2013

The SAVA CVC wishes all its supporters all the best in the year 2013. Your support is invaluable to us.

Current CVC fund-raisers:

- 1) The creative writing competition closes the 31st of January 2013. Thank you all practices that have supported us in this initiative. Funds raised from selling paw prints can be banked in the CVC bank account.
- 2) The "Name the Mascot" competition is still running. Entries can now be made by sms; please contact CVC office for details. We really need your support!
- 3) Please continue to support the CVC by using your MyPlanet card at participating shops, and encouraging others to add the CVC as beneficiary to their cards. For more information or to apply for a card, please contact CVC head office.
- 4) Should any of your clients or associates express an interest in leaving money to an animal welfare organisation in their will, the CVC would be grateful to be named a beneficiary. For more information about bequests, please contact CVC head office.

News:

The Danville CVC in Pretoria is in desperate need of a principal vet. We also need vets willing to volunteer at the Makapanstad and Ratjiepan clinics on a regular basis. Please contact Debbie Pleaner if you are interested.

debbie@cvetc.co.za or 012 346 1150

Thank you Eukanuba for the awesome donation of food to the CVCs this month. Also the Joey Gracie Foundation and Glen Austin Vet for their donations of food. A thank you to Pfizer for their donation of Supona Spray.

CVC will have a stand at the World of Dogs and Cats in Durban in February.

The CVC has a facebook page and we are working hard at keeping the website updated. Please visit our facebook page and "like" it, as well as our website to stay current with CVC events.

www.facebook.com/communityvet

www.communityvet.co.za

CVC HEAD OFFICE CONTACT DETAILS: 012 346 1150 or cvc@sava.co.za